

DAISY, ROBIN and ME!

A

1

I want to be a robot

Written by Mary Charrington and Charlotte Covill

Illustrated by Michael Emmerson

OXFORD

One rainy day, Daisy and Robin are playing with the dressing up box.

'I want to be a robot,' says Daisy.

'I want to be a robot, too,' says Robin.

Daisy puts on her robot costume.

Robin puts on his robot costume.

And off they go ...

Daisy and Robin see lots of robots.

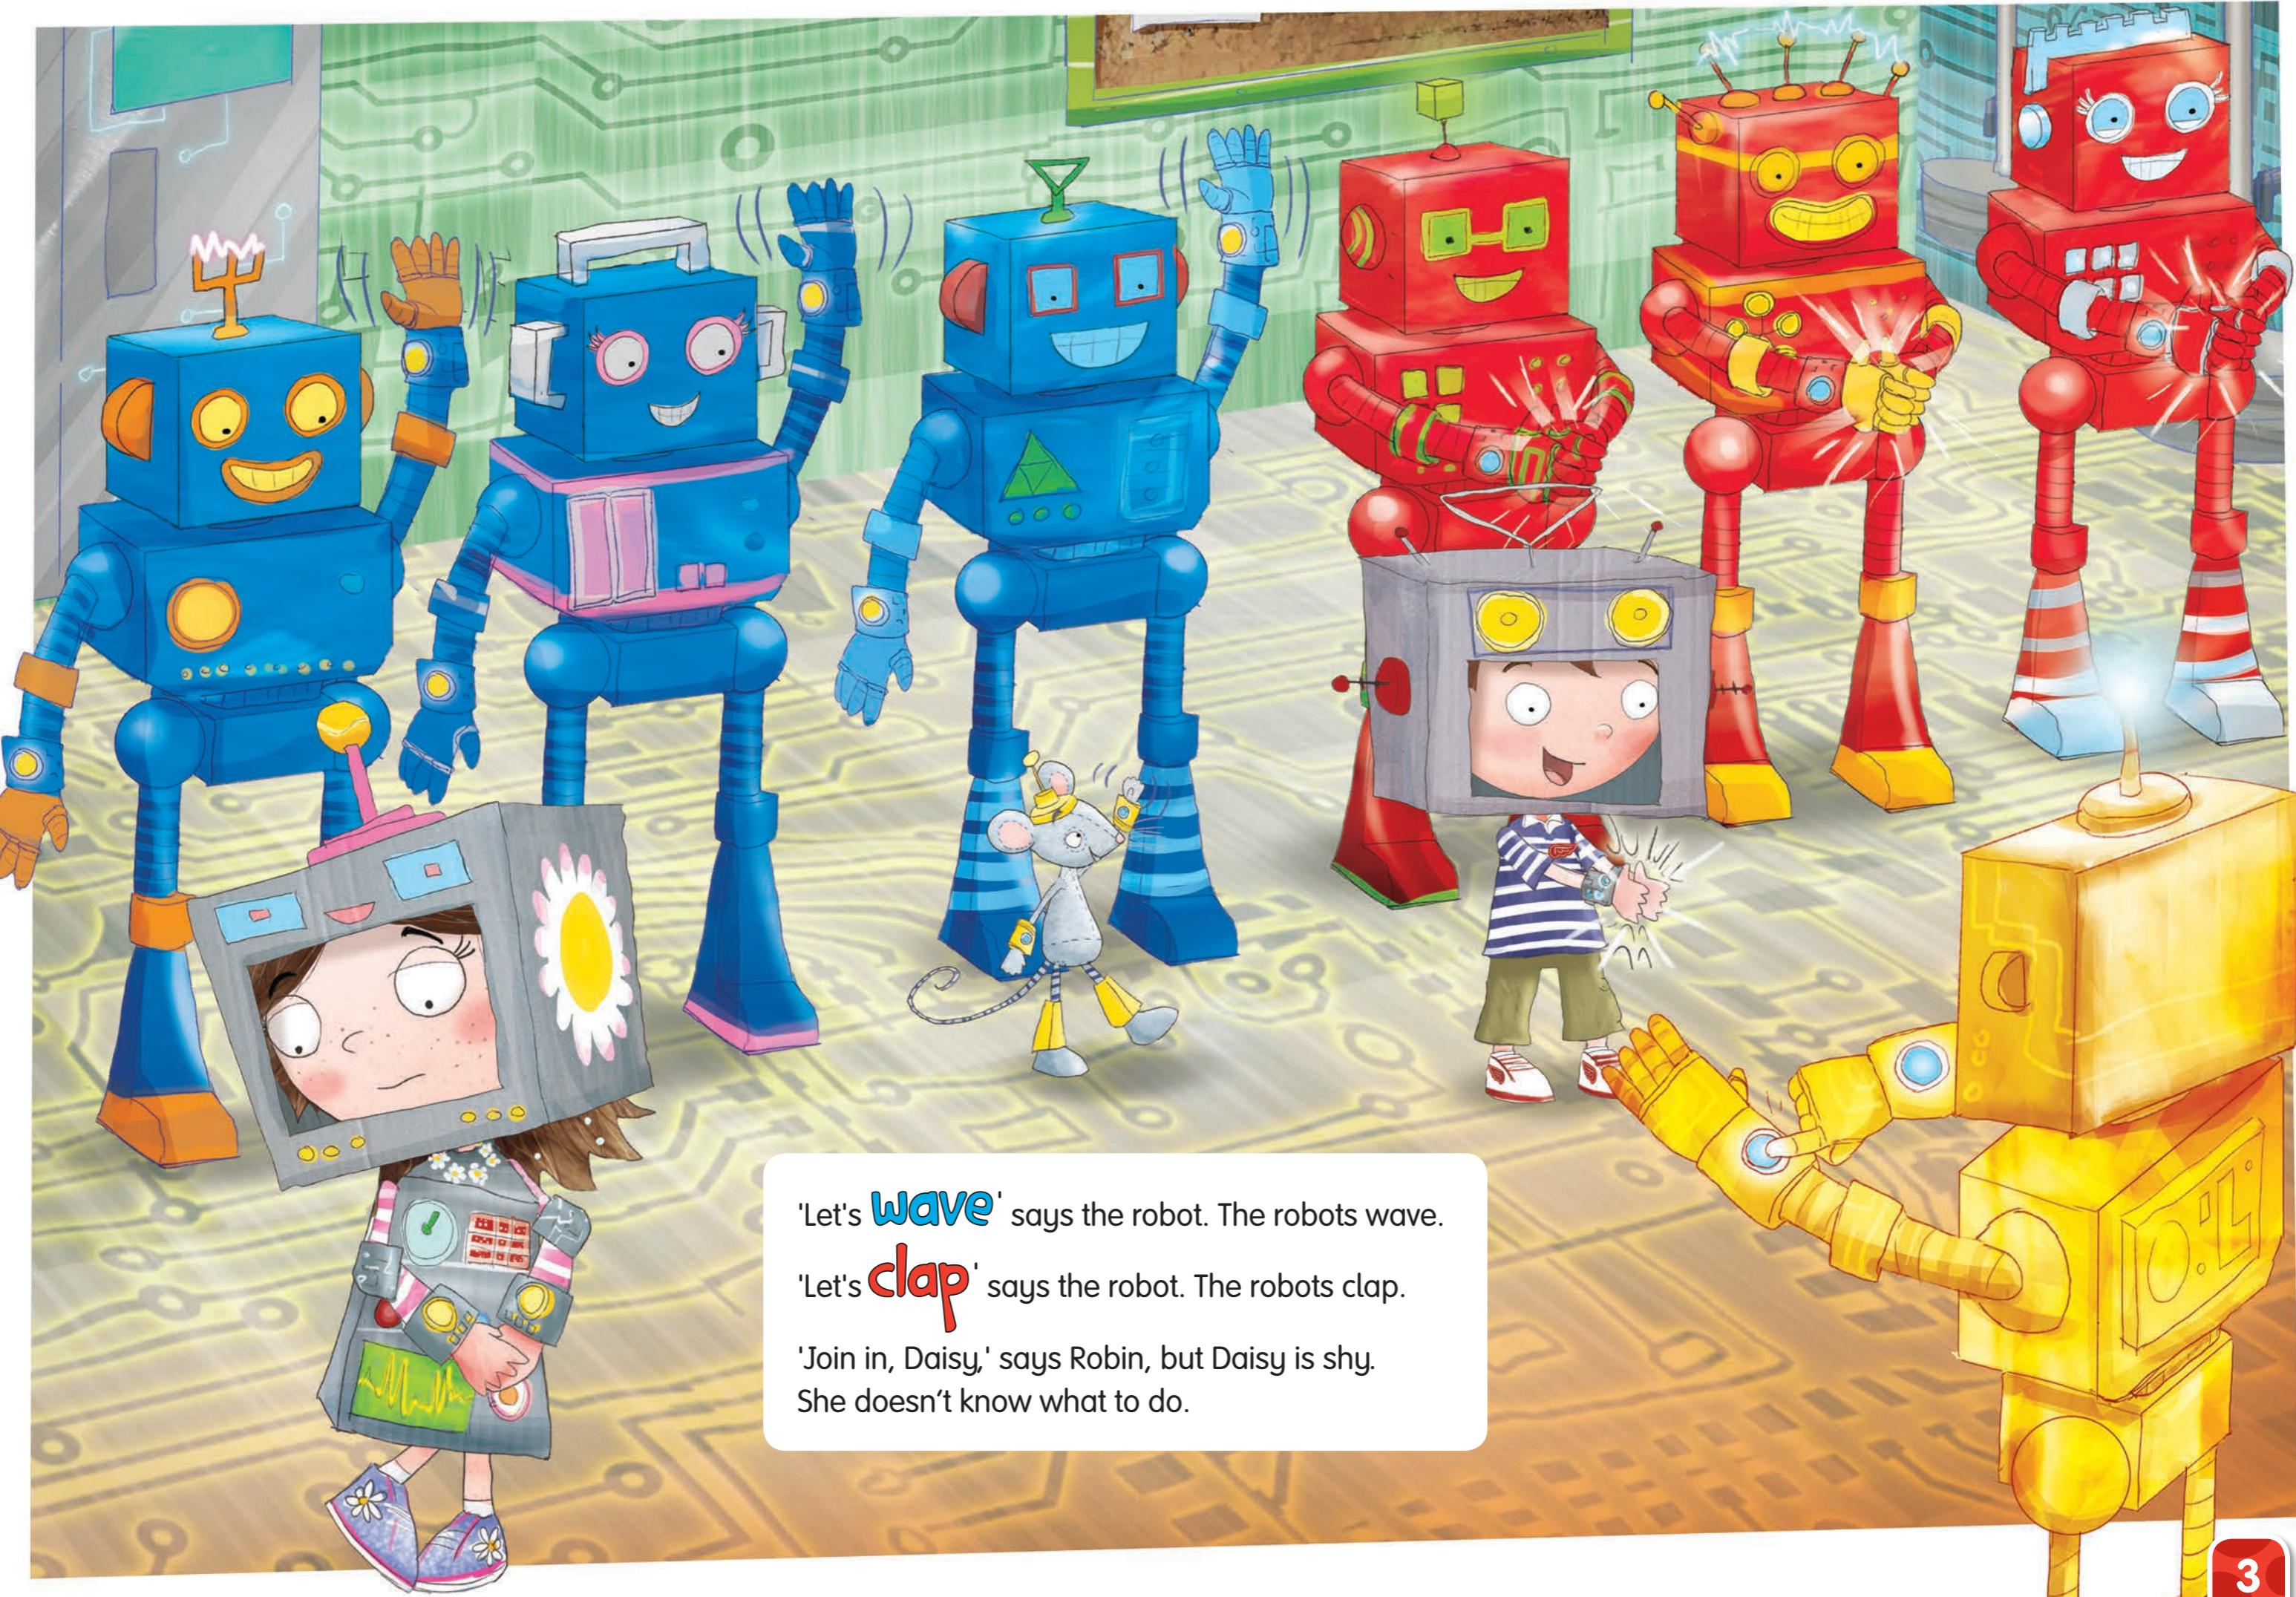

'Hello,' says the leader robot. 'What's your name?'

'I'm Daisy,' says Daisy. 'And this is Robin.'

'Well, Daisy and Robin,' says the robot.

'We're doing exercises. Join in!'

'Let's wave' says the robot. The robots wave.

'Let's clap' says the robot. The robots clap.

'Join in, Daisy,' says Robin, but Daisy is shy.
She doesn't know what to do.

'Let's point' says the robot. The robots point.

'Let's sit down' says the robot.
The robots sit down.

'Join in, Daisy,' says Robin, but Daisy is shy.
She doesn't know what to do.

'Let's stand up' says the robot. The robots stand up.

'Let's dance' says the robot. The robots dance.

'Join in, Daisy,' says Robin, but Daisy is shy.
She doesn't know what to do.

'Don't worry, Daisy. Copy me!' says the robot.

'1, 2, 3 ... wave and clap and point to me!'

4, 5, 6 ... sit down, stand up, dance like this!'

Daisy isn't shy any more!

'1, 2, 3 ... wave and clap and point to me!

4, 5, 6 ... sit down, stand up, dance like this!

says the robot. 'That's great, Daisy! Well done!'

'It's fun to join in,' says Daisy.

Daisy and Robin have lots of fun with the robots, but now it's time to go home.

They wave goodbye to the robots.

'Goodbye', say Daisy and Robin.
'Goodbye', say the robots.

DAISY, ROBIN and ME!

A

2

I want to be a monster

Written by Mary Charrington and Charlotte Covill

Illustrated by Michael Emmerson

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

www.oup.com/elt

ISBN 978-0-19-480745-6

9 780194 807456

One windy day, Robin and Daisy are playing with the dressing up box.

'I want to be a monster', says Robin.

'I want to be a monster, too,' says Daisy.

Robin puts on his monster costume.
Daisy puts on her monster costume.

And off they go ...

Robin and Daisy walk through the trees.
They are looking for monsters.

'Look! There's a monster,' says Robin.
'It's got yellow eyes.'

'And it's got blue ears,' says Daisy.

'It's got a red nose,' says Robin.

'And it's got a green mouth,' says Daisy.

The monster sees Robin and Daisy.
The monster roars.

'Rooaar!'

Robin and Daisy are frightened.

'Aaaaah!'

run! shouts Robin.

Robin and Daisy run and run,
but the monster runs, too.

The monster is sad.

'Please stop running,' says the monster.
'Everyone runs away. No one wants to play with me.'
'Don't be sad,' says Robin. 'We'll play with you.'

'Let's climb a tree,' says Robin.

So, Robin, Daisy and the monster climb a tree.

Robin and Daisy are happy.

The monster is happy, too.

'Let's jump up and down,' says Robin.

So, Robin, Daisy and the monster jump up and down.

And they roar and roar and roar!

'ROOOAAAR!'

Robin, Daisy and the monster play all day, but now it's time to go home.

They wave goodbye to the monster with the yellow eyes, the blue ears, the red nose and the green mouth.

'Goodbye', say Robin and Daisy.

'Goodbye', says the monster.

DAISY, ROBIN and ME!

A

3 I want to be an artist

Written by Mary Charrington and Charlotte Covill

Illustrated by Michael Emmerson

OXFORD

One sunny day, Daisy and Robin are playing with the dressing up box.

'I want to be an artist', says Daisy.

'I want to be an artist, too,' says Robin.

Daisy puts on her artist costume.

Robin puts on his artist costume.

And off they go ...

Daisy and Robin are in a garden.

But everything is black and white.

'Hello,' says a ladybird. 'Are you artists?
Can you help us paint the garden?'

'Yes!' say Daisy and Robin.

Daisy opens a paint pot.

'What colour is it?' asks the ladybird.

'It's pink,' says Daisy.

'Pink! That's great. Let's paint!' says the ladybird.

Robin opens a paint pot.

'What colour is it?' asks the caterpillar.

'It's orange', says Robin.

'Orange! That's great. Let's paint!' says the caterpillar.

Robin opens some more paint. It's grey.

And Daisy opens some more paint. It's brown.

'Grey and brown! That's great. Let's paint!' say the caterpillar and the ladybird.

'Look, more paint,' says Daisy.

'Green', says the caterpillar.

'My favourite colour!'

'Red', says the ladybird.

'My favourite colour!'

'I've got yellow', says Robin.

'I've got blue', says Daisy.

'The garden is beautiful now,' say the ladybird and the caterpillar.

'Thank you!'

'That's OK,' says Daisy. 'Now let's tidy up!'

So, Daisy, Robin, the ladybird and the caterpillar tidy up the paints.

It's time to go home.

Daisy and Robin wave goodbye to the ladybird and the caterpillar, and the beautiful pink, orange, grey, brown, green, red, yellow and blue garden.

'Goodbye', say Daisy and Robin.

'Goodbye', say the ladybird and the caterpillar.

DAISY, ROBIN and ME!

A

4

I want to be a bird

Written by Mary Charrington and Charlotte Covill

Illustrated by Michael Emmerson

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

www.oup.com/elt

ISBN 978-0-19-480749-4

9 780194 807494

One cloudy day, Robin and Daisy are playing with the dressing up box.

'I want to be a bird', says Robin.

'I want to be a bird, too,' says Daisy.

Robin puts on his bird costume.
Daisy puts on her bird costume.

And off they go ...

Robin and Daisy find a baby bird. He's sad.

'Hello,' says Daisy. 'What's the matter?'

'I'm stuck,' says Baby Bird. 'I can't get out.'

'We can help you,' says Robin.

Robin and Daisy try to help Baby Bird.

'Pull, pull, pull!'

They pull and pull, but Baby Bird still can't get out!

'Here's my granny and my grandad', says Baby Bird.

'Granny and Grandad Bird, can you help?' asks Robin.

'Yes, we can,' say Granny and Grandad Bird.

Robin, Daisy, Granny and Grandad Bird try to help Baby Bird.

'Pull, pull, pull!'

They pull and pull but, Baby Bird still can't get out!

'Here's my mummy and my daddy,' says Baby Bird.

'Mummy and Daddy Bird, can you help?' asks Robin.

'Yes, we can,' say Mummy and Daddy Bird.

Robin, Daisy, Granny, Grandad, Mummy and Daddy Bird try to help Baby Bird.

'Pull, pull, pull!'

They pull and pull but, Baby Bird still can't get out!

'Here's my sister and my brother', says Baby Bird.

'Sister and Brother Bird, can you help?' asks Robin.

'Yes, we can,' say Sister and Brother Bird.

Robin, Daisy, Granny, Grandad, Mummy, Daddy,
Sister and Brother Bird try to help Baby Bird.

'Pull, pull, pull!'

They pull and pull and pull!
And they pull and pull and pull!

Then suddenly ... 'Whoosh!' Baby Bird is free!

'Yippee!' says Baby Bird.

'Thank you, Robin. Thank you, Daisy.
Thank you, everyone!'

Everyone is happy.

It's time to go home.

Robin and Daisy wave goodbye to Granny, Grandad, Mummy, Daddy,
Sister, Brother and Baby Bird.

'Goodbye', say Robin and Daisy.
'Goodbye', say the birds.

DAISY, ROBIN and ME!

A

5 I want to be a superhero

Written by Mary Charrington and Charlotte Covill
Illustrated by Michael Emmerson

OXFORD

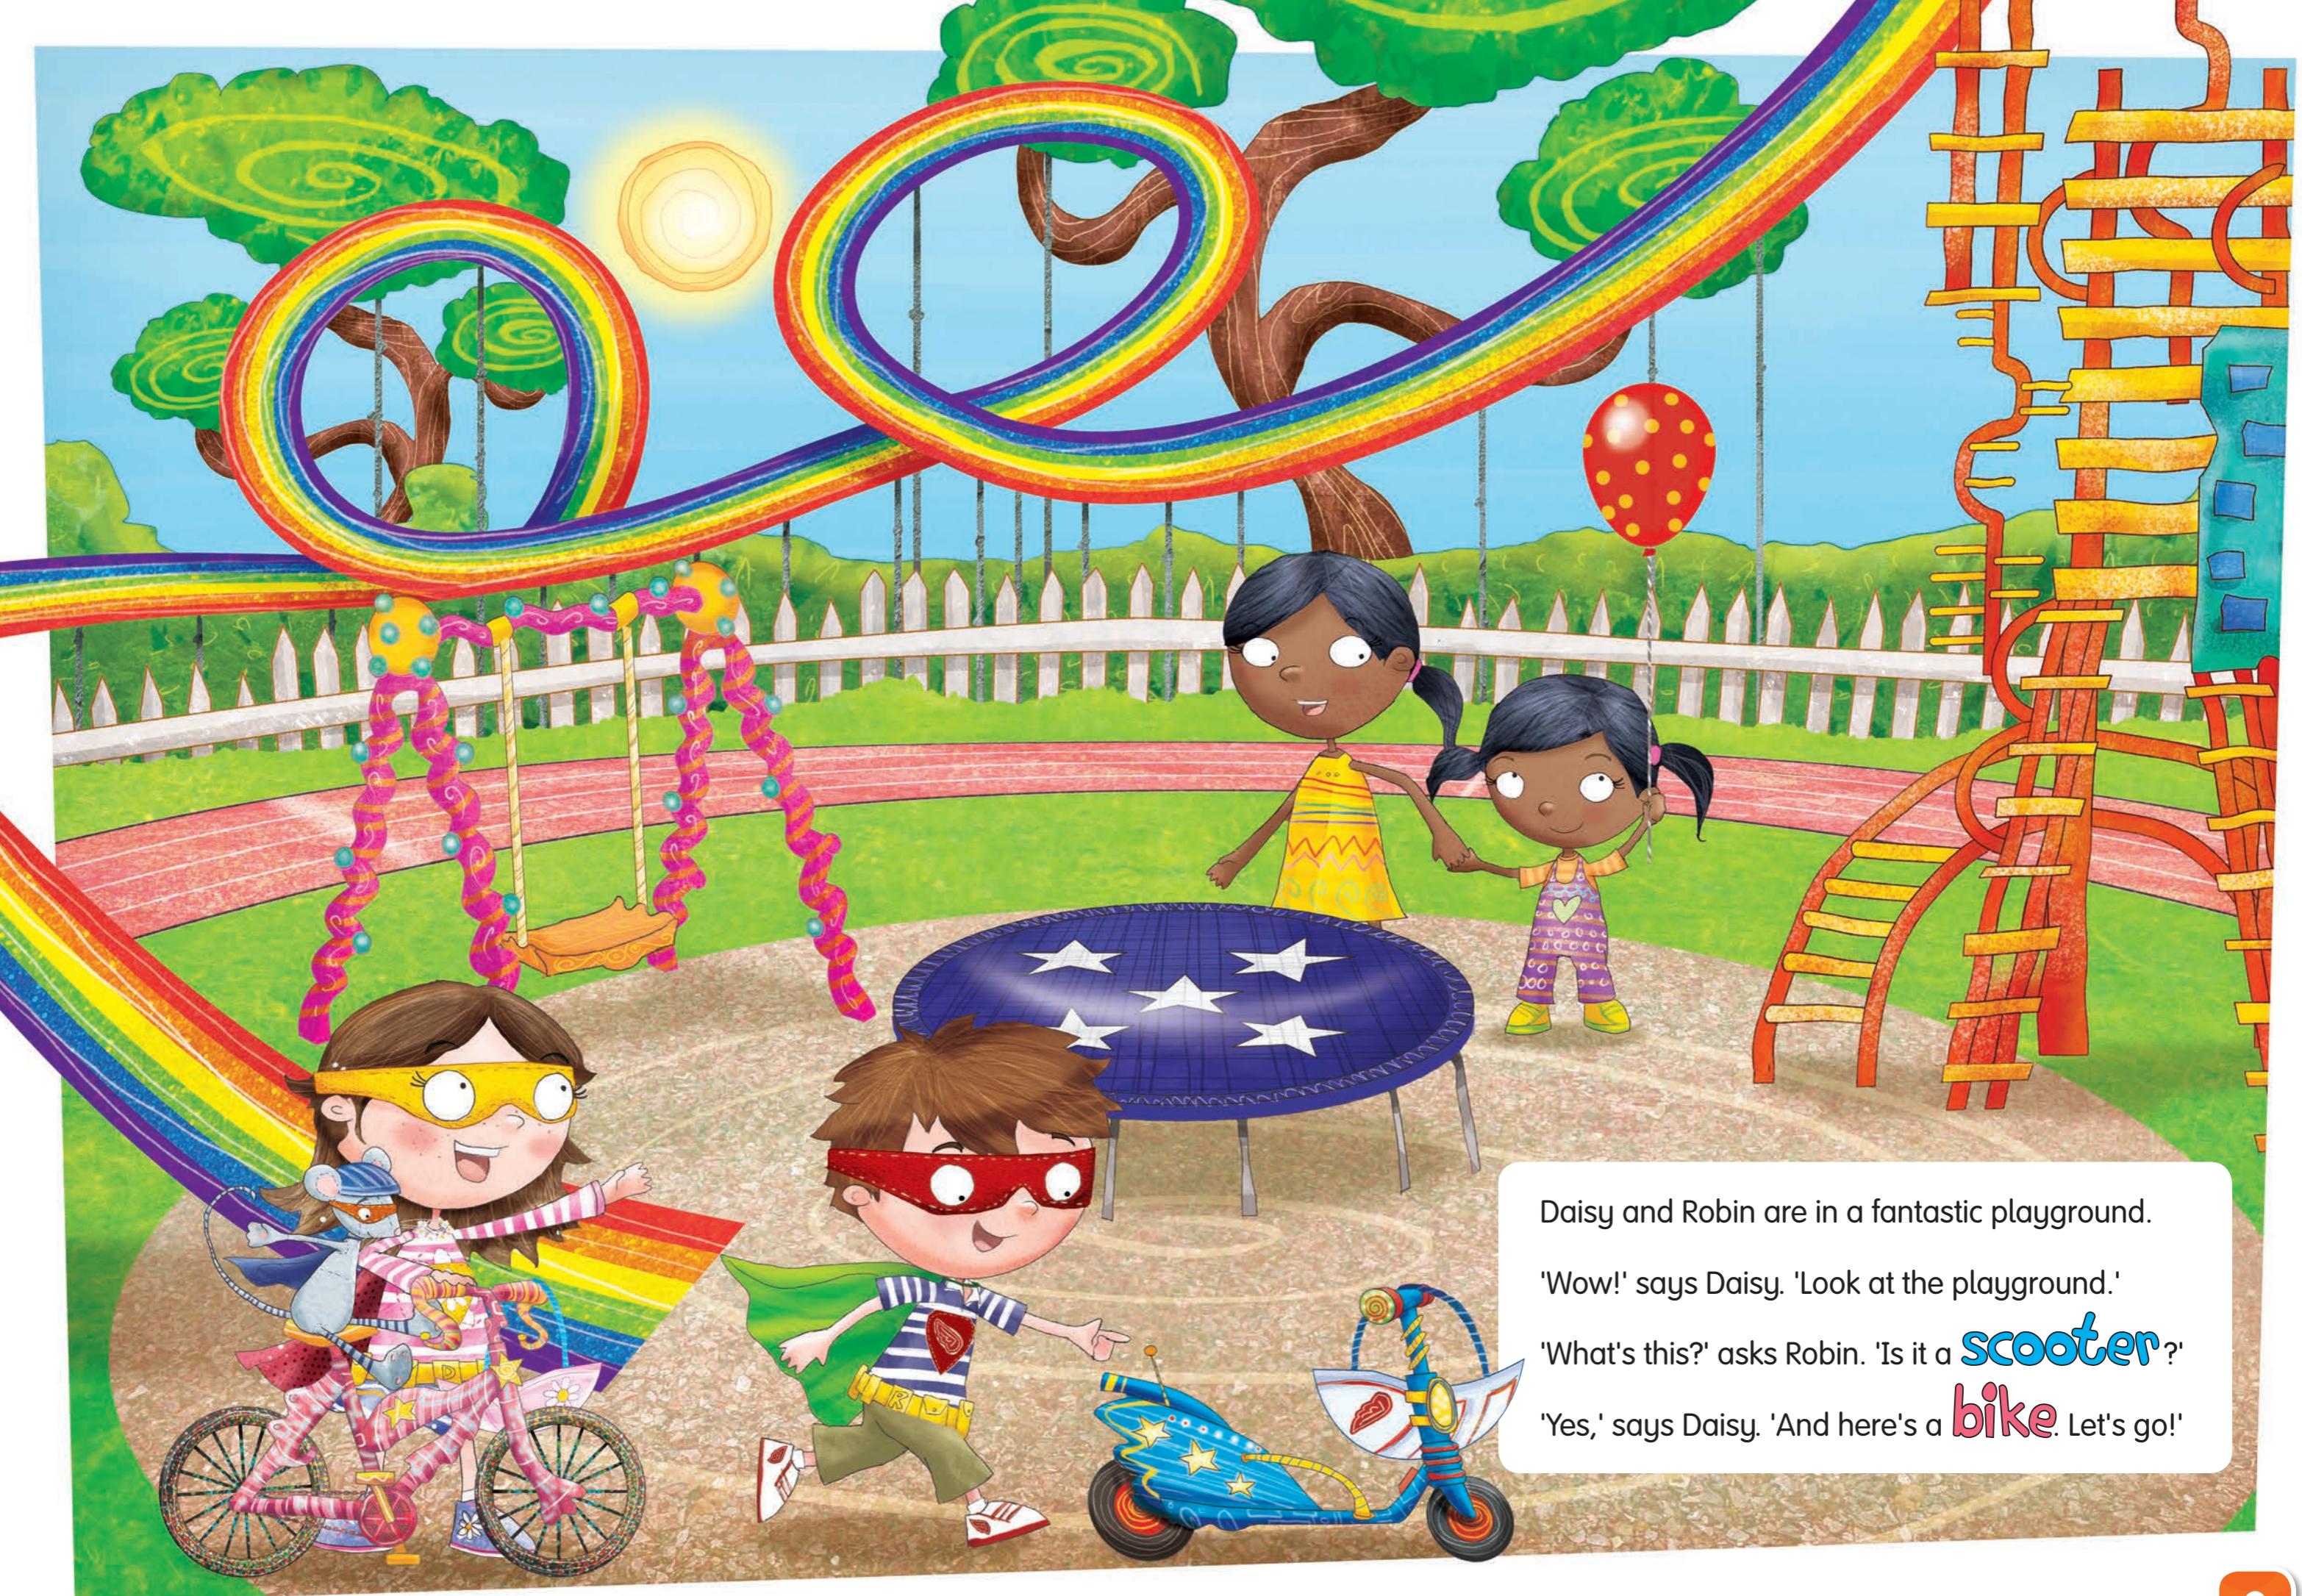

One sunny day, Daisy and Robin are playing with the dressing up box.

'I want to be a superhero,' says Daisy.

'I want to be a superhero, too,' says Robin.

Daisy puts on her superhero costume.
Robin puts on his superhero costume.

And off they go ...

Daisy and Robin are in a fantastic playground.

'Wow!' says Daisy. 'Look at the playground.'

'What's this?' asks Robin. 'Is it a scooter?'

'Yes,' says Daisy. 'And here's a bike. Let's go!'

Daisy and Robin see a little girl. She's sad.

'What's the matter?' asks Robin.

'Look at my balloon,' says the little girl.

'Don't worry,' says Daisy. 'We're superheroes. We can help.'

Superhero Daisy is on the swing.

'Swing, Daisy, swing!' says Robin.

Daisy swings higher and higher and higher.

Superhero Daisy is on the trampoline.

'Jump, Daisy, jump!' says Robin.

Daisy jumps higher and higher and higher.

Superhero Daisy is on the climbing frame.
She's very high.

'Stretch, Daisy, stretch!' says Robin.

Daisy stretches and stretches and stretches.

Until ...

'Hurray! She's got my balloon!' says the little girl.

Superhero Daisy is on the slide.

'Wheeee!'

'Here's your balloon,' says Daisy.

'Thank you, Superhero Daisy!' says the little girl.
She's happy now.

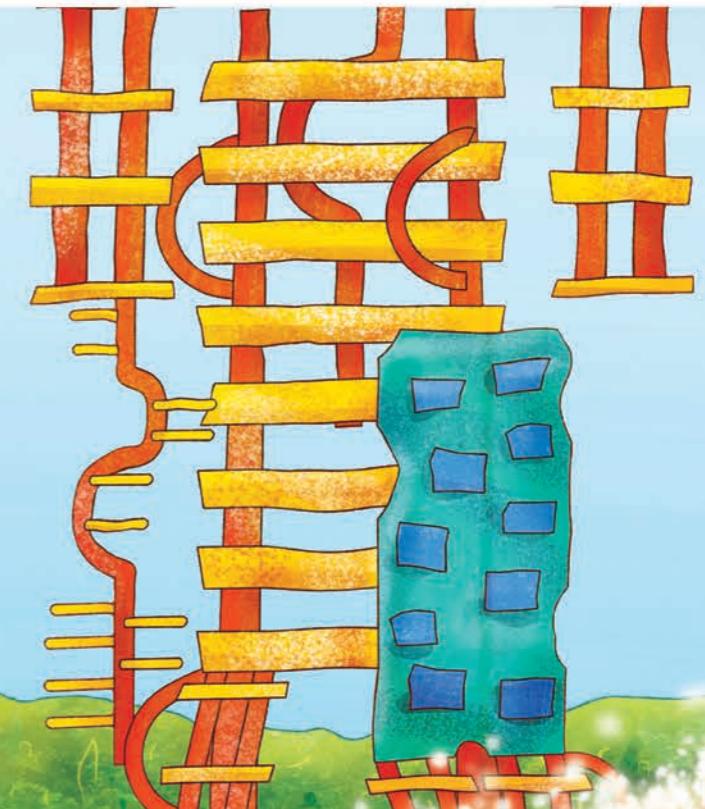

It's time to go home.

Daisy and Robin leave the fantastic playground with the scooter, bike, swing, trampoline, climbing frame and slide. They wave goodbye to the little girl.

'Goodbye', say Daisy and Robin.

'Goodbye', says the little girl.

OXFORD

DAISY, ROBIN and ME!

A

6 I want to be an explorer

Written by Mary Charrington and Charlotte Covill

Illustrated by Michael Emmerson

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

www.oup.com/elt

ISBN 978-0-19-480750-0

9 780194 807500

One rainy day, Robin and Daisy are playing with the dressing up box.

'I want to be an explorer', says Robin.

'I want to be an explorer, too,' says Daisy.

Robin puts on his explorer costume.
Daisy puts on her explorer costume.

And off they go ...

Robin and Daisy walk through the trees.

'I can see a snake,' says Robin.

'Fantastic,' says Daisy. 'Can you see an elephant?'

'No,' says Robin.

'I want to see an elephant,' says Daisy.

Robin and Daisy cross the river.

'I can see a crocodile', says Robin.

'Fantastic,' says Daisy. 'Can you see an elephant?'

'No,' says Robin.

'I want to see an elephant,' says Daisy.

Robin and Daisy climb onto a big, grey rock.

'I can see a monkey and a parrot,' says Robin.

'Fantastic,' says Daisy. 'Can you see an elephant?'

'No,' says Robin.

'I want to see an elephant,' says Daisy.

Robin and Daisy sit down on the rock.

'I can see a lion,' says Robin.

'Fantastic,' says Daisy. 'Can you see an elephant?'
No,' says Robin.

'I want to see an elephant,' says Daisy.

Suddenly, the rock starts to move.

'Aaaaaah!'

'The rock's moving!' says Daisy.

'It isn't a rock!' says Robin.

'It's got big ears and a big nose.'

It's an elephant.'

'Hurray! An elephant!' says Daisy.

The elephant walks to the river.

'Wow! Look!' says Robin.

'I can see a snake, a crocodile and a monkey.'

'And I can see a parrot and a lion,' says Daisy.

'And an elephant!' ...

'Let's take a photo,' says Daisy.

So, Daisy takes a photo of the snake, the crocodile, the monkey, the parrot, the lion and the elephant.

It's time to go home.

Robin and Daisy wave goodbye to the animals.

'Goodbye', say Robin and Daisy.

DAISY, ROBIN and ME!

A

7

I want to be an astronaut

Written by Mary Charrington and Charlotte Covill

Illustrated by Michael Emmerson

OXFORD

One sunny day, Daisy and Robin are playing with the dressing up box.

'I want to be an astronaut,' says Daisy.

'I want to be an astronaut, too,' says Robin.

Daisy puts on her astronaut costume.
Robin puts on his astronaut costume.

And off they go ...

Daisy and Robin see a rocket.
It's pink and yellow and blue.

'Wow! A rocket!' says Robin.

'Let's go to the moon,' says Daisy.

So, Daisy and Robin climb into the rocket.

5, 4, 3, 2, 1... 'Whoosh!'

The rocket zooms into the sky.

'We're very high,' says Robin.

'I can see the earth,' says Daisy.

The rocket lands on the MOON.

'This is fun,' says Daisy. 'I'm walking on the moon!'

'I want to explore,' says Robin.

Daisy and Robin see a little star. She's sad.

'Hello,' says Daisy. 'What's your name? What's the matter?'

'I'm Little Star.' says the star, 'I want to go home.'

'We'll take you home,' says Robin. 'Let's go to the rocket.'

Daisy and Robin are in the rocket.

'Are you ready, Little Star?' asks Daisy.

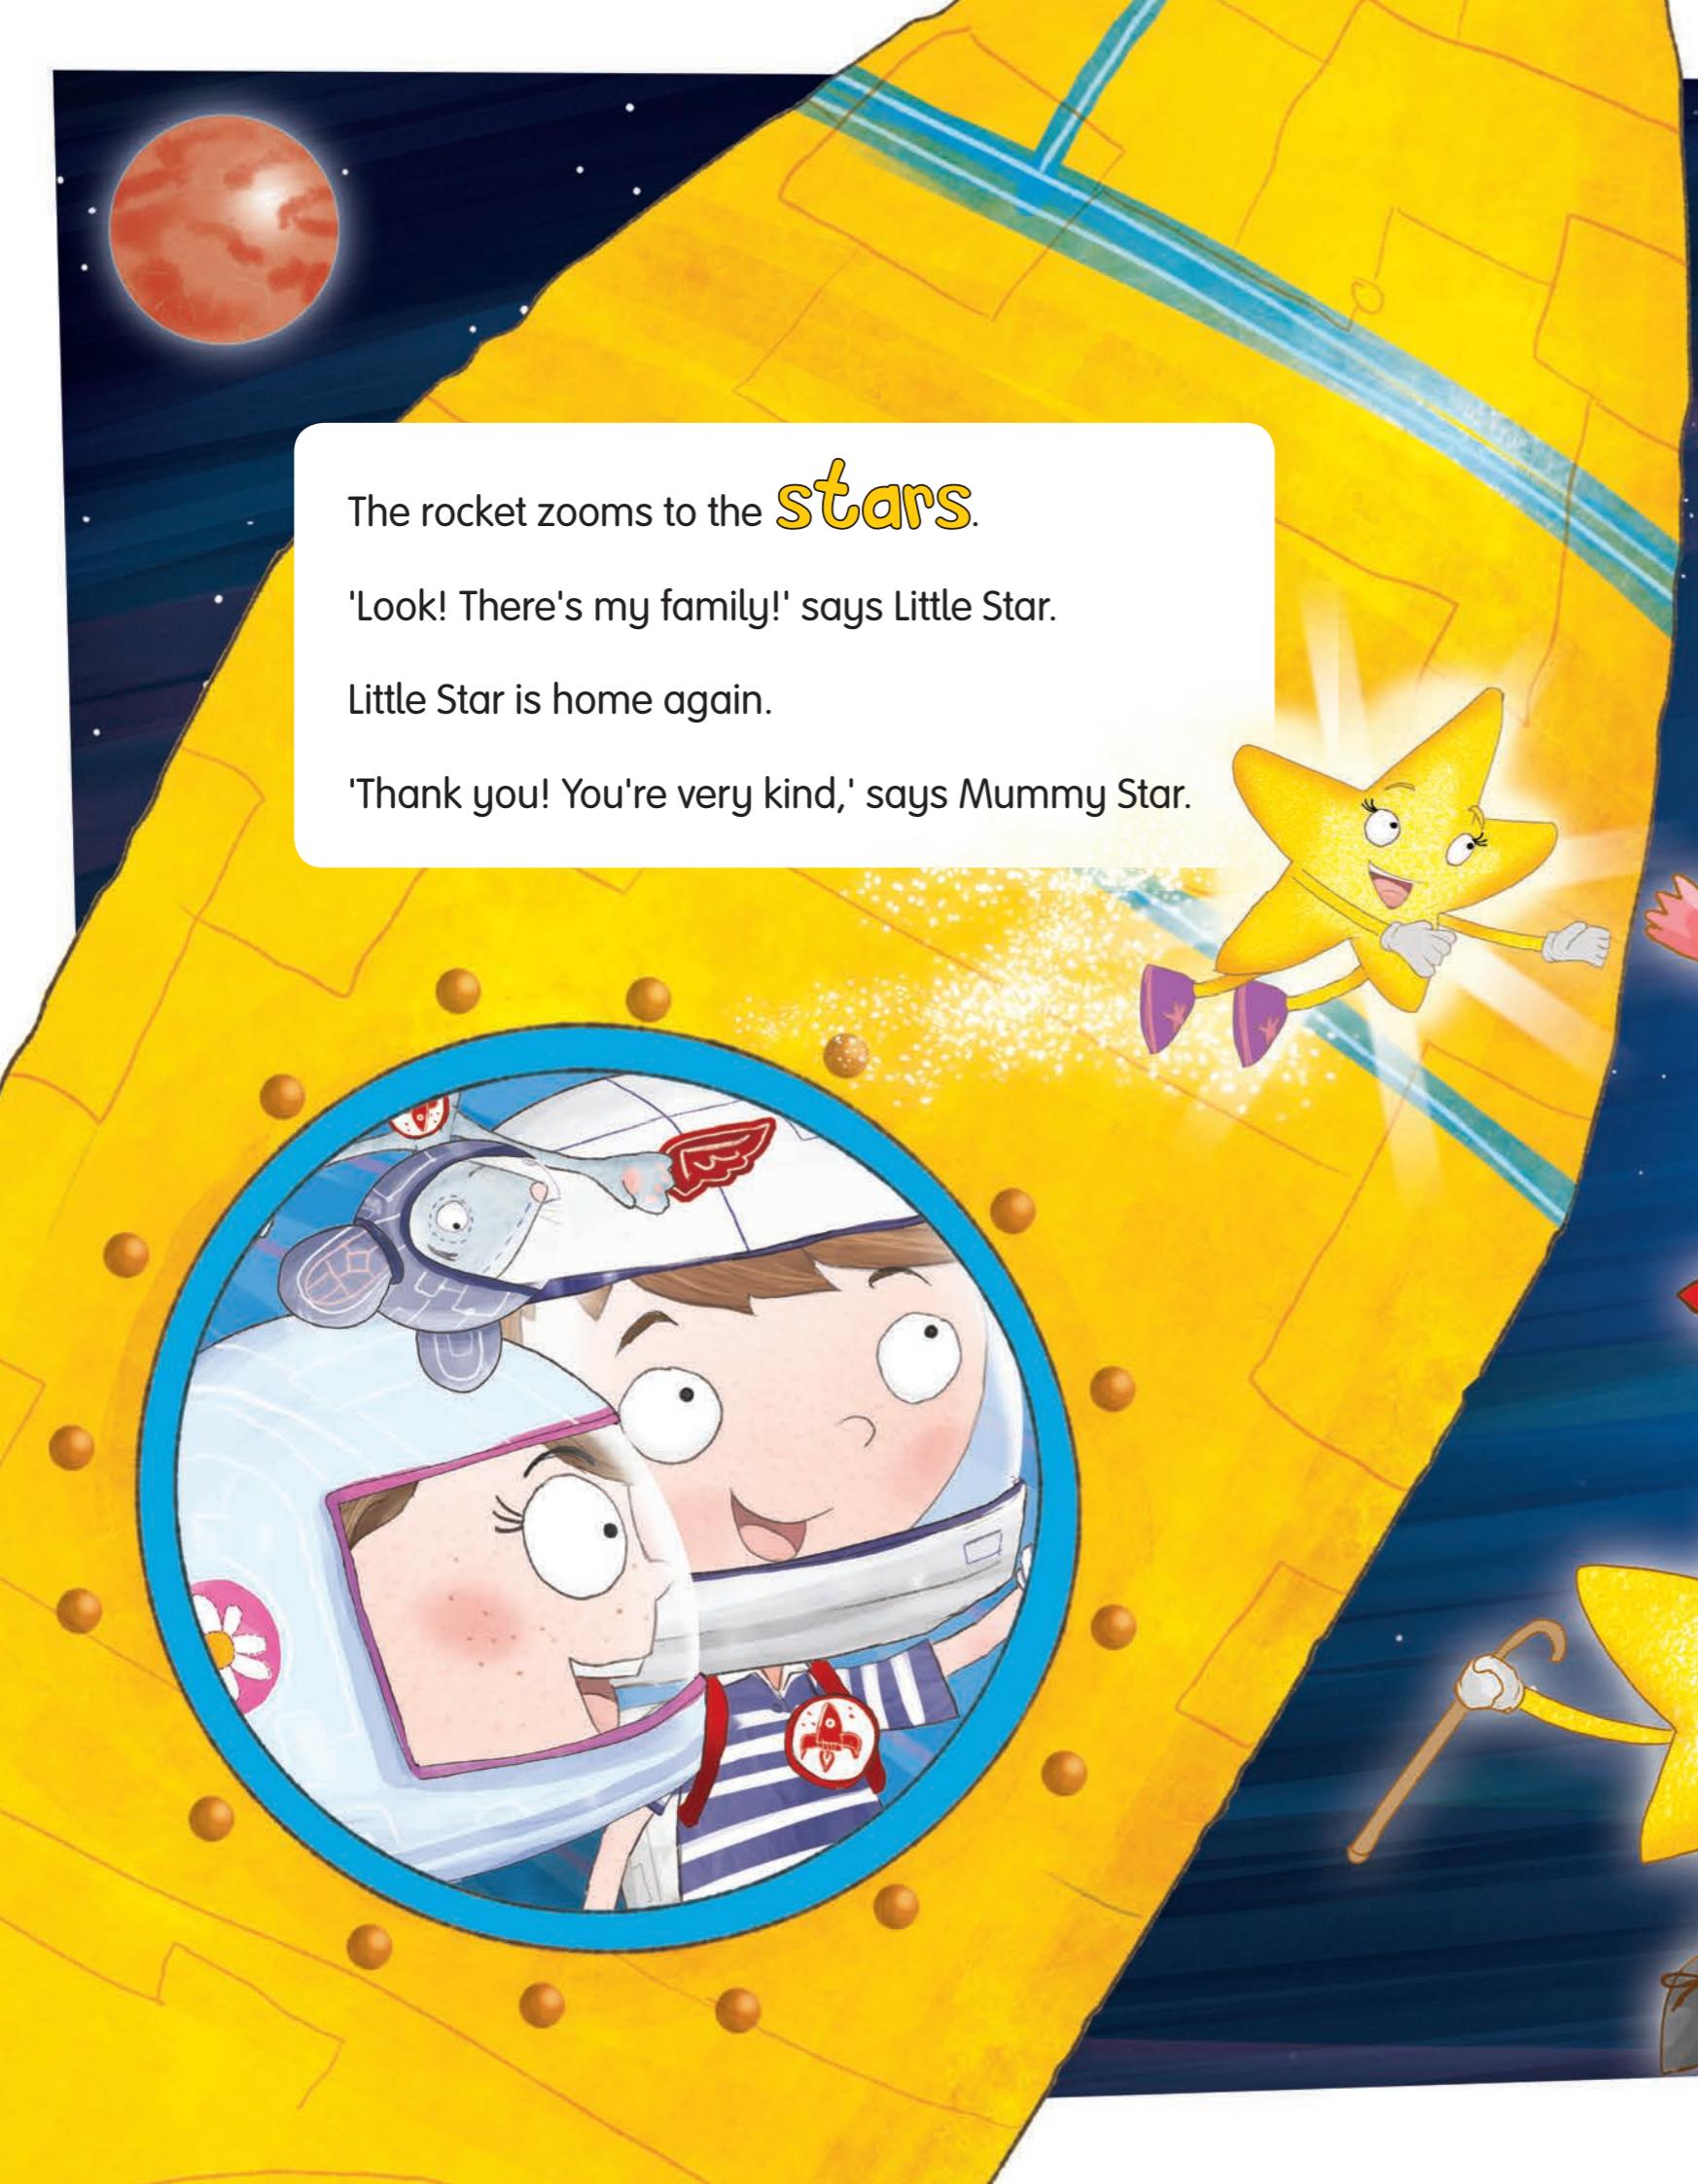

'I'm ready,' says Little Star.

'Let's go!' says Robin.

5, 4, 3, 2, 1... 'Whoosh!'

The rocket zooms into the sky.

The rocket zooms to the stars.

'Look! There's my family!' says Little Star.

Little Star is home again.

'Thank you! You're very kind,' says Mummy Star.

DAISY, ROBIN and ME!

A

8

I want to be a prince

Written by Mary Charrington and Charlotte Covill

Illustrated by Michael Emmerson

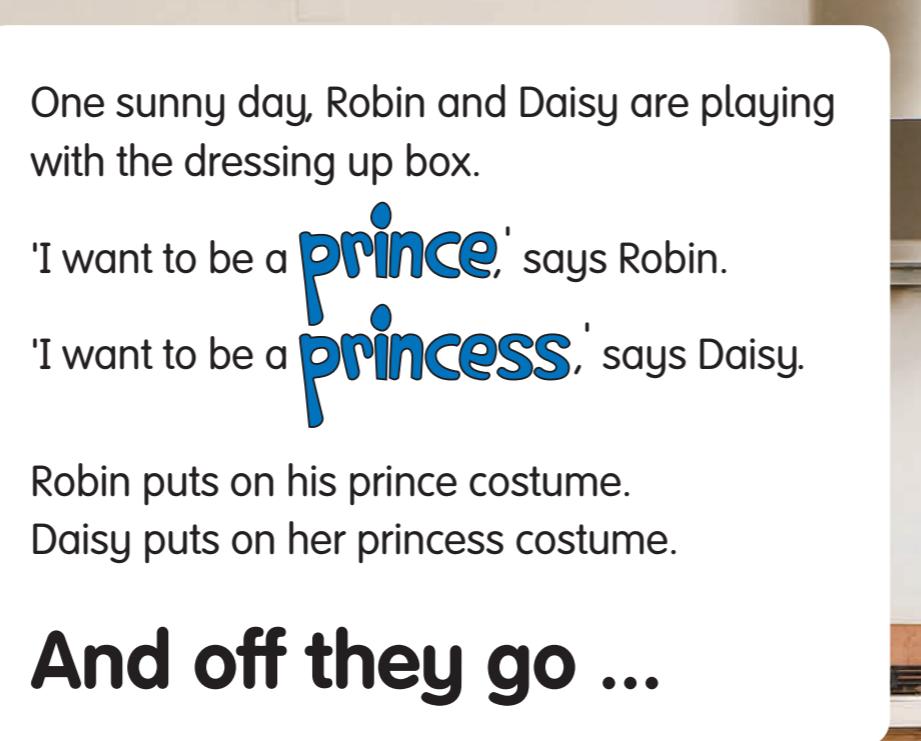

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

www.oup.com/elt

ISBN 978-0-19-480751-7

9 780194 807517

One sunny day, Robin and Daisy are playing with the dressing up box.

'I want to be a prince', says Robin.

'I want to be a princess', says Daisy.

Robin puts on his prince costume.

Daisy puts on her princess costume.

And off they go ...

Prince Robin and Princess Daisy are at a castle.

'I'm hungry', says Daisy.

'I'm hungry, too,' says Robin. 'Let's pick some fruit.'

'I can help you,' says a friendly dragon.

Prince Robin and Princess Daisy see some apples and pears.

'Yum, yum,' says Robin. 'I like apples.'

'I like pears,' says Daisy.

They pick some apples and pears.
The dragon helps them.

Prince Robin and Princess Daisy see some oranges and bananas.

'Yum, yum,' says Robin. 'I like oranges.'

'I like bananas,' says Daisy.

They pick some oranges and bananas.
The dragon helps them.

Prince Robin and Princess Daisy see some cherries and strawberries.

'Yum, yum,' says Robin. 'I like cherries.'

'I like strawberries,' says Daisy.

They pick some cherries and strawberries.
The dragon helps them.

Now, Robin and Daisy have got lots of fruit.

Prince Robin and Princess Daisy take the fruit back to the castle.

Oh, no!
Look at the dragon!

Oh dear! The dragon has eaten all the apples, oranges and cherries. Prince Robin is sad.

'I'm sorry,' says the dragon.

'It's OK,' says Princess Daisy. 'Look! I've got pears, bananas and strawberries. We can share my fruit'

Prince Robin, Princess Daisy and the dragon eat lots of pears and bananas and strawberries, but now it's time to go home.

'Goodbye', say Robin and Daisy.
'Goodbye', says the dragon.